CLIENT EXECUTIVE

Vickey Bundy joined the MJ Insurance team in 2012 in our Personal Insurance department. With over four decades of industry experience, Vickey excels in her field. She manages high net-worth personal lines accounts as well as servicing and maintaining the daily needs of her clients.

With a focus on personalized service and a consultative approach, Vickey and the Personal Insurance team work to create comprehensive programs customized to fit their client's needs. She strives to help her clients understand their coverage options completely and make sure their insurance program is in alignment with their changing lifestyle and family needs. Vickey's vast knowledge of the marketplace and personal insurance has made her a true asset in the Personal Insurance department and throughout the agency. Vickey is thankful to work in a position where her expertise is used to help clients understand and receive the best possible coverage.

Outside of work, Vickey likes to work in her garden and relax by listening to music or watching golf tournaments on TV. Her favorite singers are currently Ed Sheeran or Eric Church. Vickey also finds autobiographies to be very interesting and reads them in her spare time.
