Amanda Schnettler joined the MJ team in as a client advocate and was quickly promoted to the role of a client executive within the Personal Insurance department. Amanda's primary responsibility is to provide exceptional customer service to personal insurance clientele. In this capacity, she sets out to create personalized and comprehensive programs for clients by evaluating, implementing, and managing their individual and risk management needs.

With over ten years of experience in the insurance industry, Amanda has held numerous positions with a wide range of responsibilities. Her commitment to ensuring the uninterrupted execution of client strategy and customer service makes her an invaluable asset to the MJ team.

Amanda is an avid mountain biker and enjoys playing violin, chess, tennis, and pickleball. In her free time, she explores her artistic side by drawing or painting whatever comes to mind. She also loves traveling and hopes to see as much of the world as she possibly can.
