FAVORITE QUOTE

“Be a force of fortune, instead of a feverish, selfish little clod of ailments of grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy.” —George Bernard Shaw

Paige Beilby joined the MJ team as our director of analytics in our Benefits Consulting department. In her role, Paige further bolsters MJ's ability to forecast program costs for clients and develop strategic recommendations that align seamlessly with each clients' individualized benefit strategy. Her passion for curating and deploying data models to help clients predict future trends and outcomes seamlessly aligns with MJ's customized data-driven approach.

With over a decade of actuarial and analytical consulting experience in the Denver region, Paige brings a versatile set of skills and a strong understanding of the Colorado market. Leaning on her expertise, Paige and her team work diligently to create predictive models for claims, customer behavior and financial performance for MJ clientele.

Outside of MJ, Paige finds bliss in the great outdoors, partaking in activities like fly fishing and skiing. Her green thumb is put to work as she lovingly tends to her yard, transforming it into a beautiful oasis. Paige is also an active Pilates enthusiast, finding strength and balance through this mindful practice.
