Courtney Hutchison joined the MJ team in 2022 as market president - Colorado. Renowned as one of the most influential benefits consultants and industry leaders in the state, Courtney leads growth and expansion efforts in the Colorado market. Courtney is an active member of MJ's Senior Leadership Team, a team dedicated to providing market trends and industry insights to inform the organization's long-term strategy.

Equipped with over two decades of industry experience, Courtney adopts the mentality of a coach who is passionate about leading a team to victory. She is a collaborative team-builder with a proven track record of successfully advising on employee benefits and total rewards strategies for both domestic and global organizations. Courtney's specialties include long term cost control techniques, emerging vendor solutions, mergers and acquisitions, and client relations. Her extensive background paired with her proven leadership track record make Courtney a valuable asset to the organization.

Outside of the office, Courtney enjoys spending time outdoors with her husband, two sons and her dog, Claire. As a self-proclaimed wine and cheese enthusiast, Courtney has developed quite the talent for building gourmet cheese boards for parties, a hobby she describes as "strange, yet fulfilling."
