Tyler Bartling joined the MJ team as a sales intern in the Risk Management + Commercial Insurance department. Since then, Tyler now serves as a risk management consultant within the Risk Management + Commercial Insurance team.

As a risk management consultant, Tyler plays a pivotal role in analyzing identified risks, evaluating their likelihood, and assessing their potential impact on the organization. Collaborating closely with stakeholders, he contributes to the development of effective risk management strategies. This encompasses implementing risk mitigation measures and exploring risk transfer options. He believes in forming strong relationships with his clients and enjoys meeting them to understand their businesses better.

Prior to MJ, Tyler earned his degree in Professional Selling from Ball State University. His previous work experience has honed his skills in providing the best customer service, making him an excellent addition to our team. Tyler's eagerness to learn and understand our organization has enabled him to become an exceptional member of the MJ team.

When Tyler is not working, he can be found brushing up on his golf skills. He is also an avid Indianapolis Colts fan and can be seen cheering them on at any time.
