DESIGNATIONS

Chartered Retirement Plans
Specialist (CRPS®)

Kevin Seiler joined the MJ team as a plan operations manager and has since transitioned to the role of client executive in the MJ Retirement department. In this role, Kevin is responsible for oversight of plan processes, conducting extensive plan document review, and providing operational support to the team's Retirement Advisors.

Kevin's leadership experience spans over fifteen years, acquired through his roles at DEFENDERS and Sallie Mae. Kevin's passion for collaborating with his team to provide the best solutions for his clients makes him well-suited to serve MJ's retirement clientele.

Outside of the office, Kevin enjoys spending quality time with his friends and family. He and his wife, Becky, are enjoying watching their twins flourish in college and are becoming accustomed to the concept of being "empty nesters."
