David Miller joined the MJ team as a business development consultant in our Benefits Consulting department. In his role, David focuses on new business development, particularly around MJ's captive solutions and our capabilities for employers in the healthcare industry. He facilitates connections among local business leaders through networking events, roundtables, and industry gatherings. David is dedicated to relationship management and actively supports our mutually beneficial partnerships, while raising awareness for the innovative solutions we bring to the marketplace.

David brings over 30 years of industry experience and a wealth of expertise to the MJ team. Through his previous roles, he honed his skills in identifying opportunities, nurturing client relationships, and driving business growth through strategic initiatives. With decades of experience within the healthcare industry specifically, David serves as a valuable asset to our clients as he understands their unique needs and the solutions to get them to where they want to be. David uses his leadership skills, strategic mindset, and solutions-driven attitude to propel both MJ and our clients forward.

Outside of MJ, David enjoys spending quality time with his family and friends and cheering on his favorite sports team, the Oklahoma Sooners and Kansas City Chiefs. A passion of David's is about advocating for affordable, accessible healthcare and making a positive impact in the community. He is also passionate about staying active and loves CrossFit. He competes on a National Level any chance he gets.
