Claire (CiCi) O'Connell joined the MJ team as a client advocate in our Benefits Consulting department. In her role, CiCi ensures smooth day-to-day operations of our existing employee benefits clientele. With a keen eye for detail and a passion for client experience, CiCi's responsibilities include preparing renewal information and ensuring accuracy in policy details.

Prior to MJ, CiCi studied at the University of Arizona where she earned her degree in journalism along with a minor in communication. Honing in on what she learned from her studies, CiCi uses her excellent communication and writing skills to serve as a dedicated advocate on our clients' behalf. Her organizational skills and attention to detail make her an outstanding addition to our team.

Outside of MJ, CiCi enjoys spending time with her friends and family. Whether that be trying a new restaurant, cooking a meal together, or watching a movie, CiCi likes to stay busy with those who matter to her most.
