Mollie Jensen joined MJ as a client executive in our Personal Insurance department. In her role, she is instrumental in designing and executing risk management strategies. Mollie's expertise extends to overseeing the entire lifecycle of our client's multi-year risk treatment plans, from inception through ongoing evaluation to periodic revision. With a keen focus on creating tailored solutions, she ensures the seamless integration of comprehensive plan design.

With a robust background in relationship management and financial services, Mollie brings over a decade of experience. Leveraging this extensive background, she contributes valuable insights to the team in areas such as client advocacy and a deep understanding of the financial process involved with risk management. Mollie's proficiency is critical in delivering superior client experience, and supporting MJ's commitment to excellence.

Outside of MJ, you will likely find Mollie trying a new cuisine, either in the newest restaurant or in her own kitchen! Her ideal night can range from enjoying live music to cozying up with her pets and watching a movie.
