FAVORITE QUOTE

"To whom much is given, much is expected."

Angela Talbot joined the MJ team as an associate director, client experience. With extensive experience in employee benefits, Angela serves as a subject matter expert and trusted advisor for complex client scenarios and specialized strategies. In her current role, she helps lead the client experience team, guiding the development and execution of clients' benefit plan strategies while ensuring seamless collaboration and support from her team.

With over 20 years of experience in competitive group benefits, Angela has worked on client retention and product adoption for employer groups with 100-30,000 members. She leads with a strategic approach to business renewal activities, including detailed reporting review to ensure delivery of insightful recommendations that are in alignment with client goals and industry trends. Angela enjoys empowering clients through education and collaboration, making her an invaluable asset to both the MJ team and our clients.

Outside of work, Angela enjoys listening to and playing music as she can play the violin/fiddle and the piano. Angela enjoys staying active as she plays tennis and spending time at the beach. She is also a big college sports fan where she roots for the LSU Tigers.
