MJ's Chief Marketing Officer, Britni Shrout, is a seasoned marketing professional with an impressive 18-year journey at MJ where she has consistently demonstrated commitment, innovation, and passion for driving growth and excellence. As MJ's CMO, Britni plays a pivotal role in shaping the firm's success and has earned her place as a respected leader on the Executive Leadership team.

Britni embarked on her journey with The MJ Companies in 2008 as a commercial account coordinator in MJ's Risk Management + Commercial Insurance department. Swiftly climbing the ranks through her exceptional performance and visionary leadership, with each passing year, she assumed increasing responsibilities. Her strategic acumen, combined with her deep understanding of the insurance and financial services industry, has been instrumental in driving MJ's marketing initiatives to new heights.

In addition to her corporate achievements, Britni is deeply committed to social responsibility and philanthropy. Her role as the Executive Director of the MJ Foundation reflects her dedication to making a positive difference in the community. Under her guidance, the Foundation has contributed over $700,000 to various charitable causes across the nation, reinforcing the agency's mission of being an active force for good in the communities our associates call home.

When Britni isn't busy working, she is pursuing her passion for travel and the outdoors with her husband, Andy, and bernadoodle rescue, Gus.
